

Passious

Entrepreneurs face many problems in their startup journey from finding a right cofounder, hire a skilled freelancers to getting investments.

Passious was created by Passionate Entrepreneurs, who wished to create a community where people could build the future together, inspire each other and invest in each other's startups - not only financially but with their ideas as well.

Entrepreneurs from all over India can connect to create startups and hire/look for like minded Developers and Managers

Passious allows Investors to find exactly what they want to invest in.

Freelancers willing to work can now easily get freelancing to help build startups.

From finding the right people at the right time to pitching a startup at the right place and getting funded at the right time, Passious makes every step easy for a startup.
